

Biography

Ray Zazo brings over three decades of distinguished consulting leadership experience from Deloitte and KPMG, where he served as a principal focused on innovative technology solutions. Today, he channels his expertise into helping organizations harness the transformative power of Generative AI to enhance operational efficiency, foster innovation, and drive unprecedented productivity gains. Throughout his career serving Fortune 1000 clients, Ray has consistently demonstrated his ability to identify and implement emerging technologies that create sustainable competitive advantages. His focus on Artificial Intelligence reflects his enduring commitment to keeping clients at the forefront of technology advancements. Share Ray's vision for AI-driven transformation and tune into his podcast titled “Technology Reimagined with Ray Zaso,” available on major streaming services.