

Dina Rossi Elliott – Bio

Dr. Rossi Elliott was born and raised in Cumberland County. She lived in Vineland for most of her life and now resides in Millville with her daughter, Olivia. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School. After high school she continued her education by obtaining an undergraduate degree in Elementary Education with a focus on English from The College of New Jersey. From there she went onto Graduate School at Wilmington University and then achieved her ultimate goal by obtaining her Doctoral Degree from Seton Hall University in Educational Leadership.

Dr. Rossi Elliott began her teaching career as a General and Special Education teacher in the Stratford School district where she taught from 1998 through 2003. From 2004-2005 she was the Resource Teacher at St. Mary's Regional School in East Vineland. She then moved forward in her career by accepting a Principal's position in Downe Township Elementary School. In 2007, she was promoted to Superintendent/Principal of the Downe Township School District. Then in 2010 she became the Assistant Superintendent for Administration with the Vineland Public School District. In 2012, Dr. Rossi Elliott became the Superintendent for the Cumberland County Board of Vocational Education, which has just recently opened a brand new, state of the art career and technical high school in Cumberland County known as CCTEC.

Dr. Rossi Elliott's hobbies include running and visiting Disney World with her daughter. She has completed 11 full marathons and numerous half marathons.