

Robert H. Barron is a full-time Arbitrator and Mediator in the Mid-Atlantic region who has practiced labor and employment law for over 30 years. Prior to 2017 Mr. Barron worked for NFI as their General Counsel and leader of NFI's Canadian Division. Prior to working for NFI, he was the General Counsel for the Philadelphia Inquirer and Daily News, as well as being responsible for the papers' labor relations. Mr. Barron began his career as a labor and employment attorney with Pepper Hamilton in Philadelphia.